The Vice-Rector for Art and Teaching of the Academy of Fine Arts Vienna calls for proposals for 8 courses (each course lasting for two academic hours a week) for the academic year 2022/23. Of these, 7 courses will be offered in Gender / Queer Studies and 1 course in Critical Race Studies. Courses that pursue a disciplinary perspective as well as interdisciplinary or intersectional courses can be submitted. An advisory board consisting of experts in the fields of Gender/ Queer / Decolonial Studies is involved in the selection process. We will inform you about the results at the end of May.

Selection criteria

- The quality of the proposal and qualification of the applicant
- The advisory board tries to select proposals that represent a variety of topics
- A broad distribution among the institutes and study programs at the Academy of Fine Arts Vienna is pursued
- Assignments will only be given to those individuals, which did not teach a course on the basis of this gender/queer studies program at the Academy of Fine Arts Vienna (Gender | Queer | Decolonial Studies) within the last three years.
- A weekly held course is preferred, courses may be partly taught in longer segments, but cannot be taught in just a few long segments.

¹ Please note that lectures (Vorlesungen) are research-based scholarly courses. The higher remuneration compared to seminars is based on a higher estimated workload for the teachers: for each academic hour (45 minutes) 90 minutes of preparation and 45 minutes of wrap-up. The teacher is solely responsible for presenting the course – students may be given time for discussion, but larger contributions, e.g. presentations by students or papers, cannot be expected.

² Seminars or Workshops (Übungen) can be based on scholarly or artistic as well as arts based research issues and methods. In these courses, students are required to contribute substantially in written (papers) and/or oral form (presentations). The estimated workload for teachers is therefore: 45 minutes preparation and 45 minutes wrap-up for each academic hour of 45 minutes.

There are two different teaching assignments

For individuals without teaching experience at university-level

During the summer semester 2023 you will be responsible for teaching your submitted course. As a preparation for this, you will co-teach a course together with a colleague from the Academy during the winter semester 2022/23. In your proposal you may indicate possible faculty for co-teaching in autumn, although this is not necessary. The purpose of the co-teaching period is to introduce you to teaching methods in higher education via the support of a co-teacher/mentor.

Winter Semester: Co-teaching monthly remuneration: min. € 306,50; paid seven times

Summer Semester: Seminar/Workshop (Übung): Monthly remuneration min. € 353,60; paid seven times

For individuals with teaching experience at university-level

You will teach your proposed course during either the winter or summer semester. Please state if you prefer to give your course in the winter (October-January) or summer semester (March-June) or if both terms would be possible.

Lecture (Vorlesung): Monthly remuneration min. € 471,00; social insured, paid seven times

Seminar / Workshop (Übung): Monthly remuneration min. € 353,60; paid seven times
